Welcome to my new website. I am finally joining the 21st century. It is part of a reawakening plan to digitalize my life...I'm even finding better fingerings! Still have to practice though – now if someone could only invent a way of digitally encoding that, think of the time that would be liberated.... There are a variety of photos on this site, some serious, some capricious. If you need a photo for the purposes of publicity then I trust you will find one that suits the mood. Enjoy and thanks for taking a peek at my life as a cellist. The rest remains private...I hope. Take care!
