

FESTIVAL
MUSIQUE DE CHAMBRE
MONTRÉAL

A true achievement!

“The program we offered the audience was more eclectic than ever. The quality of the artists and the high level of the performances resulted in standing ovations for all concerts. According to me, the very first rule is having our patrons delighted by their experience and leaving the concert happy and smiling. An excited, enthused and fulfilled audience indicates that our mission has been accomplished.”

- Denis Brott, Festival’s Founder and Artistic Director.

Montréal, May 26 2008 – On Saturday May 24, a great six-hours Beethoven Marathon ended the 13th season of the Montreal Chamber Music Festival. This very last evening came after four weeks of different styles of chamber music.

This year’s Festival attracted nearly 5000 music lovers who attended at least one of the 16 concerts given at St-James United Church. The highly diversified and artistic program was made of performances by some 80 renowned artists such as Natalie Choquette, Rachel Barton Pine, Ignat Solzhenitsyn, Rane Lee, Simone Dinnerstein, Gary Graffman, Florence K, and Les Violons du Roy as well as prominent ensembles such as Quartango, the Jerusalem International Chamber Music Festival, Socalled, Bell Orchestre, which includes members of the famous Arcade Fire ensemble, and the Janáček Trio, among others.

Given this achievement, the Festival proudly announces it will hold its 14th season in May 2009. It’s a date!

The Festival wishes to thank its generous sponsors for their wonderful support and for having made the 13th season possible.

www.festivalmontreal.org

- 30 -

For more information :

Promotion - Katherine Fournier - 514.529.5966 - k.fournier@stationbleue.com